Fuzzy Runway – Pray for a water landing and get your rubber ducky

Fits 12" and 13" laptops, A4 books, cable, accessories and much more

This cuddly caterpillar defies the normal image of what this bag is supposed to look like. Unzip the top and slip in a laptop up to 13" (preferably one that is yours) for computing safety. It still does it all except keep you from spilling your mini-bottle of merlot into your keyboard while rushing out those all important email replies on the plane. We know, you think they're important. Well at least your boss does, and she's paying your salary. When she sees your Fuzzy Runway, she'll think she already gave you a raise for working hard while traveling, when we all know you lied on your expense account..
