

Press Release

A new one for the laptop – The Super Boomer

You may want to reconsider wearing the Super Boomer in front of an unsuspecting public. It could lead to a total annihilation of their sense of self. The world that they have carefully crafted around themselves could come crashing down. How could their simple minds process this, what category could they put an experience like this into? The power to deploy a Super Boomer must never be abused or taken lightly.
