When searching for Valentine's Day gift ideas for a girlfriend, boyfriend, wife or husband the personal touch is desired and candy and flowers can't provide it.

New photo Gift Ideas for Valentine's Day 2010

Bishop Valentine of Terni is a martyred Saint of ancient Rome. Because of his beliefs he was executed on 14 February 269. Bishop Valentine married couples and aided Christians which Emperor Claudius II considered a crime. According to legend Valentine gave the newly wedded couples flowers from his own garden. A modern Valentine present for a friend or partner requires a personal touch, that purchased flowers can hardly provide.

Cambridge. 20 Jan 2010. -- Choosing or preparing a gift for Valentine's Day should be fun - not something rushed through at the last minute. FotoInsight, a leading independent digital photo service, is expanding its range of Valentine's photo gifts year after year. "Love is a special feeling and it must be expressed in an extraordinary way, Valentine's Day is the perfect occasion", states the Head of Communication at FotoInsight Ltd and asks: "When have you given you partner a truly unique gift?"

Online digital photo services like FotoInsight can help transforming an individual photograph into a Valentine present that will be cherished and remembered for years to come:

- Snow dome with red hearts – a photograph is inserted in the centre.
- Love Crystallised: FotoInsight adds to its selection of photo gifts designed to display and preserve cherished photographs. Valentine's Day photo gift ideas include crystal heart with a 3D laser engraved photograph, picture frames, crystal key rings, pen holder glass block with a laser engraved photograph. Special about the crystal key ring is an LED light to illuminate the engraved image:
