

December 18, 2017

Rheinmetall Automotive

Stevan Zivanovic, in charge of Mechatronics, North America

As from January 1, 2018, Stevan Zivanovic (48) will succeed Rene Gansauge (44) as President of Mechatronics NAFTA at Rheinmetall Automotive AG. In this position he will have responsibility for all the North American interests of Rheinmetall Automotive's Mechatronics division.

Zivanovic already joined Pierburg Inc. on December 1st, 2017. The electronic engineering graduate studied in Serbia and the USA. He also has a Master's degree in electrical engineering and computer sciences from the University of Illinois in Chicago/USA. On completion of his studies he was employed in various management positions at Motorola and Continental.

As from January 1, 2018, Rene Gansauge will take on the position of CEO at Pierburg GmbH and Pierburg Pump Technology GmbH and thus Head of the Mechatronics division within the Rheinmetall Automotive Group.