ISEC7 and Berkley Technical Services sign strategic partnership

Expert for managed mobility services to sell ISEC7 products and solutions in the UK.

Hamburg/London, April 15, 2014 – Berkley Technical Services, a London based full service provider in the Enterprise Mobility Management (MDM) sector, has been selected as the new UK strategic partner for the Enterprise Mobility Management Expert ISEC7 Group, a global provider of mobile business services and software solutions.

Marco Gocht, CEO ISEC7 Group, explains: “We are excited, that we have found Berkley TS as a partner. They have many years of experience in the enterprise mobile computing sector – just like ISEC7. With this partnership, we will be able to handle the increasing demand for ISEC7 services and solutions in the UK market even faster. After a long time of successful co-operation with Berkley TS, our strategic partnership is the natural next step.”

Karl Graves, CEO of Berkley TS, says: “Since 2002, we have been offering managed mobility services – always on a high quality level. We have already utilised the ISEC7 software suites in major corporate enterprises across the UK to assist with the migration to different email platforms and MDM products. As an agnostic provider of MDM services in the UK, it is important that we can offer our customers the best mobile solutions. We feel that ISEC7 combines in depth know-how and high standard products and we see a huge potential in this partnership.”

ISEC7 Mobility for SAP is a technologically advanced solution for mobilising SAP systems. It enables mobile access to any SAP backend without the use of additional middleware. The ISEC7 EMM Suite is a comprehensive globally applicable MDM solution, ISEC7 Mobile Exchange Delegate ensures mobile access to Microsoft Outlook calendar, email and contacts from third parties via BlackBerry smartphone. ISEC7 Mobility Cloud Services offer shared or decided hosting of market leading enterprise mobility management solutions – based on BlackBerry Enterprise Service 10 for BlackBerry, iOS and Android.

The partnership will see Berkley offering the ISEC7 EMM Suite, ISEC7 Mobility for SAP, ISEC7 Mobile Exchange Delegate as well as ISEC7 Mobility Cloud Services. With this partnership, ISEC7 expands its international partner network.
